Fly-In To Officially Open New Stanhope Aerodrome

Stanhope Township Municipal Aerodrome will be officially opened on Sunday, September 1 by the holding of a "Fly-In".

On hand for the opening ceremonies will be the Reeve of Stanhope Township, Mr. Sinclair Nesbitt; our Federal Member of Parliament, Mr. William Scott; and our Provincial Member, Mr. Glen Hodgson.

The program for the day will include Aerobatics, subject to the approval of the Air Minister, a display of home-built aircraft by the Experimental Aircraft Association of Canada (of which a local Chapter is being formed), light aircraft maneuvers, student demonstrations, 15-minute flights for visitors, etc., and on the ground refreshment stands and music, etc.

Members of the Stanhope Flying School will be present to furnish information, literature, and registration forms for would-be flyers.

The facilities of the new Aerodrome include gas, tie-downs, snack bar, reception centre, and toilets. For flyers wishing to come in the compass bearing is: latitude 45 degrees 7 minutes north, longitude 78 degrees 39 minutes west — surface grass strip, length of East-West runway 2500 feet, unlicensed.

To give our readers a glimpse of developments leading up to this event... The Stanhope Council, recognizing that flying is becoming more and more the mode of travel, last year decided to establish the Aerodrome with a view to attracting many more visitors to our area, and possibly providing employment for some of our young citizens.

A committee was set up to get the project under way, namely Fred Olan, President; Doug Adamson, Vice-President; Eric Cross, Secretary-Treasurer. A great deal of enthusiasm has been made evident by the hard and painstaking work done by the Committee and the many volunteer workers who have helped to make the Aerodrome a reality. Particular mention should be made of Francis Thomas, builder, and Harold Burton, retired merchant, both of Carnarvon, for their financial support in the early stages of the project.

The question of local flyers was not overlooked, and in January of this year the Stanhope Flying School was organized with an initial registration of 20 students. Training flights have been under the very able instruction of Mr. Helmut Kruckel from Air Muskoka, located at the Department of Transport Airport at Gravenhurst.

Ground School got under way a couple of weeks later with Mr. Harley Clapperton as Instructor. The Clifton family of Tall Pines very kindly offered the facilities of the lodge for Ground School every Wednesday evening, and after an hour and a half of study the students were treated to some of Mrs. Clifton's tasty cakes and coffee. Also the Film Library at Haliburton has been very helpful in providing the School with film and a projector every week.

The attendance at the School held up very well all winter, and last week six students — Alan Barnes, Eric Cross, Ken Hone, Bob MacBrien, Joe Peacock, and Louise Watson — travelled to Gravenhurst to write D.O.T. examinations. All six have since been informed that they passed. The rest of the students expect to write within the next month or so.

The Aerodrome holds promise of being a real asset to Haliburton County, in that it will provide a link with many more and far-reaching areas of our country.

The Committee is hopeful that local residents will give all the support they can to this "Fly-In" which is really a step forward in the life of our community.

In event of rain, the Fly-In will be held on the following Sunday, September 8.

Head-On Crash Injures Three

Three persons were injured in a two-car head-on crash near Dorset on Monday evening, which resulted in $2,000 damage.

Police said Jack Jones, 20, of Oakville, driver of one of the cars involved, is in critical condition in Huntsville Hospital with chest and head injuries, a fractured leg, fractured nose and facial lacerations.

Maxwell John Smith, 25, of Toronto, driver of the other car, and a passenger, Joan Baker, also of Toronto, both received minor injuries, said Police. Mrs. Baker's three children, ages three, five and six, escaped injury in the mishap.

Police said the crash occurred about 6 p.m. on the Otter Lake Road, two miles from Dorset. Minden O.P.P. Constable Donald Lloyd investigated.

A workshop on professionalism and leadership for Ontario Secondary School teachers — the eighth in an annual series — was concluded recently at the Lakefield Preparatory School near Peterborough. More than 100 teachers went back to school to attend the workshop, sponsored by the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation. Among those attending were, from left to right above, Mrs. Elaine Burt, Haliburton Highlands Secondary School, Haliburton, and Gordon J. Burke, Adam Scott C.V.I., Peterborough.

"In Quest Of Yesterday" Book Presented To Hyland Crest Home

The summer visitors, as well as the residents of the County of Haliburton, are enjoying reading Mrs. Nila Reynolds' book, "In Quest Of Yesterday".

The residents of Hyland Crest Home at Minden are particularly interested in the stories in the book, as these people come from the very pioneer families who cleared the land and settled in these Highlands.

Mrs. Reynolds was a guest of the Board of Management at the Home, and presented to Mrs. Elsie Bursey, Chairman, an autographed copy of her book. This is being enjoyed by all the residents.

After the presentation Mrs. Reynolds visited with many of the residents.

Lucky Winner

Mrs. Arnold Burke of Haliburton was the lucky winner of the Snowball Game played at the Haliburton Legion Bingo held last night in Haliburton. It was worth $178.00.

The $500 Jackpot didn't go, so everyone will be back next week in search of the $500.00.

Impaired Boating

LINDSAY (ENS) — A charge of operating a boat while his ability was impaired by alcohol has been filed by Ontario Provincial Police against Henry Sawatzky, 42, of Toronto.

The Criminal Code charge was laid following a complaint on Sunday, registered by a citizen, regarding the erratic manner in which a boat was being operated in the Rosedale area.

Welcome To Haliburton

This week we would like to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Les Hughes of Woodbridge to our community. Mr. Hughes has purchased the business known as the Highland Shoe Store on Haliburton's main street, formerly owned by Mr. J. Lorne Dawson.

Mr. Hughes and his wife Gwyneth, who is a school teacher, have purchased a home in the village. Their family consists of a daughter, Judith, 18, and a son, Keith, 16.

Les Hughes is a graduate member of the Footwear Institute of Canada, and also operates a tack shop in Woodbridge in which he sells saddles, bridles, harness and other equipment. His main interest is in Figure Skating, and he could be a big help to the local Figure Skating Club.

We wish to take this opportunity to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and their family to Haliburton, and we trust that they will like it here and wish Mr. Hughes every success in his new business.

Four Accidents In Minden Area

MINDEN (ENS) — Douglas Cameron, 19, of Norland escaped with only minor injuries when the 1965-model convertible he was driving was wrecked in an accident late Sunday near Moore's Falls. The crash occurred on the Clear Lake Road about 11:30 p.m.

Reinhard Gross, 22, of Whitby was the driver of a 1963-model car which sustained $400 damage in an accident on Sunday at Moore's Falls on Highway 35.

A single-car crash on Highway 121 just east of Haliburton caused damage estimated at $150 to a car driven by Donald Morrison, 24, of Fergus.

Stephen Hummel, 20, of Dorset was identified as the driver of a car which was damaged extensively when it ran off the Buckslide Road on Sunday. The accident scene is 15 miles north of here.

HALIBURTON NEWS LETTER

After Tuesday, October 1, we will be receiving and despatching our mail from the Auditorium of the Dysart Community Arena. As it will take some four months to render repairs on our local Post Office, it will be some time in February before things will return to normal as far as mail service is concerned.

As we go to press we are informed that the condition of Mrs. Betty Brohm, who has been a patient in the Toronto General Hospital, is anything but good.

A Bailey bridge is being erected over the Drag River to care for the traffic until a new modern structure can be erected on Maple Street.

We have been informed that the Laurentian Pharmacy and the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Nicol in Haliburton have been sold to Mr. Harold Rise-borough. Rumours have been in circulation that the Drug Store was to be closed after Labour Day, but apparently such stories are without foundation.

While at the Museum last Saturday we were asked the following question: "Why does this town not have sewage?" The visitor went on to say that the town seemed to be progressing in various ways, but the stench emanating from certain areas was evidence that we needed sewage and needed it bad. "Can you be sure", he asked, "that some of the overflow from septic tanks is not running into your beautiful lake?" We had to admit that this matter seems to be of little concern to the people of this village.

A sign on the former Grand Central Hotel states that it has been sold, and it is rumoured Dr. F. E. A. Griffiths of Minden is the new owner.

Minden Fall Fair A Huge Success

Humid hot weather prevailed on one of the Minden Fair's greatest days, Saturday last.

The huge crowd was welcomed by the President of the Fair, Mr. Leslie Prentice, after which the various dignitaries made brief speeches while Mr. Fred Davis, now a summer resident of this area and a very well known TV personality, officially opened the Minden Fair.

The parade consisted of many fine entries and the judges awarded prizes to the following: Team to vehicle - Wally Denne, Orillia, S. G. MONMOUTH

By C. W. RENDALL

While walking along the road the other day we picked up a pair of glasses; if anybody lost these, they can have them by applying to me and identifying them.

For Adults Only! For some time now we have been having trouble with our septic tank, and I had been considering having it pumped out. Then I asked somebody who should know about these things and he said, and I quote, "They never need pumping out". So I got somebody up and dug up our septic field and I found that all we had was two lengths of pipe about 16 feet in all, and the last eight feet was plugged up tight, so nothing could possibly get through it thus causing a stoppage. When this was cleaned out everything was running again in perfect shape. So, if your tank is not running right check your septic field before you have the tank pumped out.

Summer is nearly over, and in less than a week schools will be opening again and the children will be back at their lessons. Camp Brigadoon closed up last Saturday, August 24, and silence has descended on the Camp.

I would like to suggest to all taxpayers in Monmouth, especially the ones on the various lakes in the area, to make a point of checking to see that their names are placed on the Voting List. As you may know, the polling day this year is on a Saturday, and we shall have a chance to cast a vote in the Elections. If your property is in your name and your wife it is likely that only one vote is all that you get, so one has to give the other the authority to vote. Do please make sure that all is in order for one of you to vote. If you are in doubt about this be sure and call into the Municipal Office and see the Town Clerk, Mr. Lloyd Watson, and get this fixed up at once!

In last week's Wilberforce News I see that Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mather have returned from New Brunswick. What happened to Lynda? Did they forget her and leave her there? Oh no, I forgot, they didn't take her. Contrary to the news in the paper, you can't always believe what you see in the paper. Also, that woman is back in the paper again. She cancels her subscription and the correspondent gets paid for putting her name in. T'aint fair!

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Bennie of Beachburg, Ontario were visiting in this area for a couple of days this week.

The Township of Monmouth Ratepayers' Association are holding their First Annual Wiener Roast on Saturday, August 31 at Sanderson's Farm on Wilbermere Lake from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. A small change as being made to help cover expenses, 50 cents per person or family (children under 16). We hope to get our Reeve, Mr. Lloyd Cully, as speaker. Do come out and get acquainted with the people on the lakes and in the village.

I have just received a copy of this year's Municipal Budget, but I haven't had a chance to study it so far. More on this later.

HALIBURTON

Mr. Bill McKnight of Haliburton is at present a patient in the Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay. He is recuperating following an operation there on Monday. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Inglis and Tom are leaving on Saturday for a five-week vacation in Scotland. Also on the same flight will be Mrs. George Exon of Lochlin and Mrs. Danny Oneil of Brighton, Ontario (formerly of Haliburton).

Miss Carrie Jones is presently a patient at Sunnybrook Hospital for surgery, and is making fine progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Ern Voycey of Gamebridge and Miss Linda Voycey of Calgary, Alberta visited with Mr. and Mrs. Phil Robinson last Sunday.

Winner of the cakes raffled at the Fair on Saturday were Flo Dollo, Garnet Snell, and Holly Stevens.

Weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs. Angus Coulter included her sister, Mrs. Abe Upton, and Mrs. Myron Beathune of Utterson.

Sorry to report that Mr. Reno Mertens was rushed by ambulance to the hospital from the Fair on Saturday. All his friends wish him a speedy recovery.

The ladies of the Altar Guild report having a very successful Rummage Sale on Friday at the new I.G.A. Store.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dave Teatro on the arrival of their daughter, Tracey Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beers of Preston were weekend guests with her Mother, Mrs. Wm. Welch.

Weekend guests with Mrs. Wm. Moore included Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brydson and Stephen, and Mrs. Muriel Clark, Michael and Laura, all of Toronto.

The Church Exhibit at the Fair named Betty's Birthday was a fine one with the winners being from Ingoldby, St. Paul's and Minden United Church groups.

Messrs. Blake Hughes and Carl Bromage of Oakville were weekend guests with the Bob Hughes'.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Robinson and Bradley spent Saturday in Lindsay.

Messrs. Fred Cooper and Bob Hughes enjoyed a fine time at a wedding dance at Gelert on Saturday night.

Some persons have been or are away on holidays; these include Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens to the East Coast, Mrs. Etta Brentnell to the West Coast, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Shantz to the East Coast and Labrador.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stone of Ormond Beach, Florida are visitors with Sam and Millie LaBange.

Mrs. J. Fairfield attended the Lancelot - Walling wedding in All Saints Anglican Church in Toronto on Saturday evening. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bond of Ottawa.

The Minden School will have a Kindergarten class both morning and afternoon, with Mrs. R. Gorrie as teacher. Other changes are: Principal of Lutterworth School Mrs. E. Lidster and staff Mrs. Welch and Miss Keller. The Principal at the Archie Stouffer School will be Harold Morgan with staff Mrs. Herlihey, Mr. Burley, Mrs. McCarey and Mrs. D. Cox, teaching on a rotating system. Also Mrs. H. McKay will teach French, and others are Mr. Pollard and Miss Pelton. Mrs. Warder will have the Special Education Course. At the Junior School the teachers are Mr. Higgins, assistant to the Principal, and Miss McArthur, Mrs. Hicks, Miss Hirstwood, Mrs. C. Brown and Mrs. Elstone. This year will see the start of a Library Resources Centre and two classrooms. The Library will have books, film strips, open-type teaching areas and both audio and visual areas. Soon there will be a central cafeteria and perhaps a swimming pool in the 1970's, but there are no lunch-room facilities at the present. Some of the staff have taken summer courses, learning new methods and techniques. The system of teachers taking only one or two subjects is an advantage and gives the students the same chance as those in larger centres.

News From Bank Of Montreal

MONTREAL — Canadians should not assume a major shift will be made towards an expansionary monetary policy, despite recent signs of easing conditions in the country.

The view is expressed by the Bank of Montreal in its July Business Review, recently issued, which assesses current North American business conditions.

"One can only hope that the interpretation being placed on the second quarter figures for the United States, to the effect that they represent the beginnings of an orderly cooling off of the economy, is correct."

"At the same time, one must assume that the policy objective in that country continues to be to take pressure off domestic resources and to move towards better external balance."

"Until more concrete evidence is available that this objective is being achieved, it might be unwise for Canadians to conclude from recent signs of easing of monetary conditions in this country that a major shift towards an expansionary policy is in the offing."

With U.S. fiscal policy now set, international attention will "no doubt shift to possible changes in United States monetary policy". The market has already moved in anticipation of an easing of monetary conditions, but it is too early to say if the recent changes will be supported by official action.

"The outcome will, of course, have important implications for Canada where in recent months the monetary authorities have had to contend not only with internal inflationary pressures in an under-employed economy, but also with the effects of turbulent international monetary conditions generally and pressure on the Canadian dollar which, though short lived, was nevertheless severe," the B of M states.

The U.S. rate of growth in recent months has been well above a rate that is sustainable at full employment and "many of the classical signs of over-heating have been in evidence. In the circumstances, there would appear to be no doubt that some slowing down in the rate of expansion as the year progresses is both desirable and inevitable".

There are signs that this process may already have begun, although the U.S. economy as a whole continued to grow at a brisk annual rate of some 5 per cent in real terms.

"In Canada the pace of advance has been even more brisk — real output expanded at an annual rate of some 8.25 per cent in the first quarter — but this expansion took place in conditions of considerable under-utilization of resources."

The main driving force behind the Canadian expansion in recent months has been exports which for the first half of the year have risen by about 16 per cent over the same period last year while imports have risen by less than 10 per cent.

The result is that the merchandise trade surplus widened sharply to over $500 million from $155 million in the earlier period.

Shipments to the United States, which rose by over 25 per cent, accounted for the exports increase.

"Of course, such a high rate of growth of exports cannot be expected to continue since a significant part of the increase was influenced by the copper strike in the United States and hedge-buying of steel in anticipation of a possible strike. Furthermore, the expected slowdown in the rate of growth of the United States economy is bound to be reflected in Canadian exports generally," the B of M states.

$300,000 Road Painting Project Underway By Department Of Highways

TORONTO — Give a kid a pot of paint and a brush and he'd paint a fence — at least that used to be the summer chore in the old days.

But if you give 200 men 200,000 gallons of paint today, what happens?

They spend the summer on one of Ontario's biggest annual paint jobs — redoing more than 14,000 miles of lane marker lines on paved highways throughout the province.

Department of Highways road painting crews are now half-way through the annual $300,000 project. But by the time they finish they will have gone through enough paint to spruce up a small city.

The white lane lines and yellow pavement edge lines not only make driving easier, they also are an important safety aid.

With solid white lines laid down in areas of restricted visibility, motorists are warned not to attempt to pass. Should they do so and become involved in an accident, they face prosecution — if they are still alive!

The cost of the annual paint job works out to a little more than 10 cents for each of the 2,750,000 vehicles registered in Ontario.

Department of Highways paint crews operate only on the King's Highway system of the province, while local road and street painting is carried out by crews employed by municipalities.

Although he was a pretty shrewd operator, Tom Sawyer would have been envious of the methods used to paint lane stripes on our highways today. Not a hand touches a brush.

All the painting is done mechanically by spray guns in painting machines specially designed and built by the Department. Each machine is mounted on a four-ton truck that can be driven from either the left or right-hand side so that the driver can accurately follow the existing line.

The most recently-designed painting units, which make up more than half of the Department's fleet, are rated as some of the finest of their kind operating on the Continent.

The design gives them the capability of laying paint from either or both sides of the vehicle, always going with the traffic. Operated by a four-man crew, they can cover 15 miles a day.

In addition to spraying solid or broken lines, the machines release a topping of fine glass beads on the paint a split second after it is laid to provide a reflective coat for easier night driving.

That's an extra touch that Tom Sawyer really would have liked.

ORGANIZED LIVING

It's customary to look forward to the end of holidays with a mixture of wistfulness and despair. They were too short; the weather was rotten; the kids all had the skitters; and you hate going back to that job that you hate.

But quite a few people go back to the routine of everyday, organized living with something like a sigh of relief.

Basically, men like work. They are not cut out for more than a couple of weeks of the gay, abandoned life of camping, swimming, fishing. These are treats to look forward to, and to look back on. But, like many of the other treats in life, they lose their flavour if taken in large, continuous doses. Even a kid gets sick of ice cream if he gets it at every meal for a month.

So the boys tote their sunburned carcasses back to the job, and fall, reasonably happy, back into the comfortable round of daily work, the casual friendships with fellow employees, and the good, long, lazy mooch around on weekends.

For the ladies, end of holidays is often sheer delight. Especially those with school-age children. No more cuts and scrapes to look after. No more summer flu to cope with. No more panic at the beach when Jimmie disappears for a few minutes. No more huddling in a tent while the rain pours down.

What joy to get everybody out of the house in the morning! What bliss to sit down with a quiet cup of coffee and taste the pure pleasure of privacy! What exquisite ecstasy to know that nobody is going to burst in with a, "Hey, Mom, Billy just fell off the porch on his head."

Like many another, I don't mind the end of holidays at all. Two months of muddling and piddling around degenerates almost any man to the level of a beachcomber.

Looking back each year, the sum total of my holidays fails dismally to impress me. Long, glorious days of fun in the sun. My foot! This summer was no different. I went fishing once in the bass-infested waters of the Georgian Bay, fished all day, and caught a cold. I broke 100 in golf. Once, I poured several hundred drinks for visitors. Not a glorious record of achievement.

It's the things I didn't do that makes the impressive list. I didn't go on that canoe trip up north. I didn't jog for an hour every day to get in shape. I didn't go to the Stratford Festival. I didn't take off on that swing around to see all my old friends in the weekly newspapers. I didn't make that trip to Quebec City to see son Hugh. I didn't read War and Peace. The list is endless.

That's why the opening of school in September finds me almost eager to abandon this life of sloth and meet the challenge of all those young faces in the classroom. And challenge is the word for some of them. "I defy you to teach me anything."

But there are other things that make the opening of a school a pleasant occasion. Fellow teachers are all brown and keen and friendly. By November they'll be gray and harassed and curly, but that's all right.

There are the new teachers, wide-eyed with alarm and confusion, who ask desperately, "But where do I send these forms? What do I do with the locker money? How do you teach a poem? Who do I see to resign?"

There are the first staff meetings, those symposiums which sparkle with the wit and eloquence of a grocery list.

But first and foremost, there are the thirteen hundred students, brown of face and limb, mini-skirted to the hilt, friendly, happy and excited as they greet old classmates, make new friends and head for another milestone on their trek through life.

Don't ask me in February, but in September, I like it.

Percy Topping Speaks To Rotary

Mr. Percy Topping of Toronto, who has a cottage on Kashagawigamog Lake, was the guest speaker at the Haliburton Rotary Club meeting on Thursday night last.

Mr. Topping, who gave a very interesting address, spoke on two subjects: Hockey and Education. He is one man who believes that you can combine hockey and education, and went on to prove this point.

The speaker has been connected with Maple Leaf Gardens and the Toronto Maple Leaf Hockey Club for 30 years. He started the Toronto Marlboro Junior 'B' club and was Manager of the Toronto Marlboros Junior 'A' club for two years. He has been on the Ontario Hockey Association executive for four years, Past President and Life Member of the Toronto Hockey League, and Chairman of the Toronto Maple Leaf Board of Scouts.

On Friday, June 28, Mr. Topping retired as Director of Assessment Revision for Metropolitan Toronto Board of Education after 48 years with the Board of Education.

One of the main thrills, the speaker said, that he gets out of hockey is seeing a boy start in Junior 'B' and work himself all the way up to the National Hockey League. Many of today's stars with the Toronto Maple Leafs started with him in the Marlboro Junior 'B' club.

He said that hockey today is big business and that it ranks with such professions as Doctors, Teachers, Lawyers and others.

Public Library News

Occasionally people comment that the shelves of our Libraries seem to be rather empty. This is not so much from a lack of books, but because the books are in the hands of the Library patrons. Last month, for example, 5,776 books circulated through our branches. This circulation is over half our book collection!

Five of our branches had their largest circulation of the year. While the coming of school vacation time slowed down the output of books from our Libraries, the patronage of summer residents helped to offset this.

The following chart indicates the circulation for July and for 1968 up to July 31:

Branch	July	1968
Minden	1526	7503
Dysart	1505	6292
Monmouth	563	2751

Art School Definite Benefit To Highlands

A selection of the work produced in its summer classes is being displayed in the Gallery of the Haliburton School of Fine Arts. It will be on view until the end of the week. Weaving, block-printing, ceramics, painting and children's art are all represented.

It must be emphasized that the work is the result of only two weeks' instruction to people, many of whom attempted these art forms for the first time.

Each instructor stressed creativity, rather than copying an existing pattern or form. One project of the children, for instance, was to draw an imaginary animal. Thus freed from thinking of the familiar, their imaginations took over with some exciting results. The same principle was followed with other projects.

The child's question: "I wonder if —" or "what would happen if —" was answered by "why don't you try?" That their interest was caught was shown during the last days of class — one could walk through the room without a child noticing you, so intent were they on their work.

At the end of the course one child, carefully carrying some of her finished work, confided: "I wish it was for all summer. I never thought school could be such fun!"

A couple of parents who had just made a tour of the work exhibited in the school corridors and classroom were overheard to say: "You hear about what they are doing, but until you see it you really can't believe so much is possible in only two weeks."

Several weavers were from out of the district. Although not possible to have all their work for the display, there is enough from the group to give people a good idea of what was done. Not on display is the enthusiasm carried away by each person.

Ceramics was a success. Like the other teachers, Miss Shimano stressed creativity. The first project — to make by the coil method an object expressing organic growth but not resembling any specific thing — started the students along the imaginative road. Results of this and the other experiments in clay were excellent.

Miss Shimano, a highly-skilled craftswoman and a teacher with high standards, stated: "I am very pleased with what was done. I am not flattering when I say the quality of work produced here is much higher than in most beginner's classes."

Examples of pottery, some left unglazed to show its appearance at this stage, form a large part of the show.

With the limited wall space in the Gallery, only the beginning and intermediate stages of picture composition are shown, and also just a few of the many block prints.

Many have already visited the exhibition. It is hoped every taxpayer in the Highlands, whether he thinks he's an art lover or not, will take time out to do the same. He should consider that this is the work of a modest number of students, then imagine the production if the school was filled to capacity.

This aspect was underlined by Mrs. Ernest Nevitt of Hamilton, summer resident of the area and a staunch supporter of the Haliburton Guild. At the close of the last evening program, Mrs. E. Nevitt made a gracious speech to the management committee and supporters of the School.

"What has been done here is tremendous," declared Mrs. Nevitt; "and what it can mean to the Highlands is incalculable."

"The classes were successful, the evening lectures outstanding. It has shown that the Haliburton School of Fine Arts has high standards. And to think that this has all been done by just a few volunteer workers!"

"But," said Mrs. Nevitt, "the community must realize that if this is to grow and become the big thing of which it is capable, everyone must become involved and help to the utmost. An excellent foundation has been laid, but it is too big a load to be carried indefinitely by three or four people."

What can the School mean to the Highlands?

It will attract a "good" type of tourist who will come to the Highlands to enjoy and preserve the beauty here. It will bring business: more people buying a much greater variety of goods; more people needing food, lodging and services. It will attract more year-round residents.

What can it mean to the Highlands?

It can be the beginning of a large craft industry that would make Haliburton known across the continent, an industry that would bring a sense of accomplishment and an additional income to scores of people.

Isn't this worth working for?

IN MEMORIAM

GILBERT — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Byrnell, who lost his life as the result of a car accident September 1, 1966; in his 21st year.

Memories are treasures
No one can steal,
Death is a heartache
Nothing can heal;
It happened so suddenly
And you were gone,
But we will always remember you
No matter how long.

—Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Mom, Dad, Bradley and Daryl.

GILBERT — In loving memory of our dear brother, Byrnell, who lost his life as the result of a car accident September 1, 1966.

They say time heals all sorrow
And helps us to forget,
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet;
God gave us strength to fight it
And courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.

—Lovingly remembered by Bryce and Valerie.

GILBERT — In loving memory of our dear brother, Byrnell, who lost his life as the result of an accident September 1, 1966.

When loved ones leave us suddenly

We grieve and wonder why
This loss has come upon us,
But God knows the reason why;
Our efforts seem so futile,
We tread life's path alone,
Our steps are slowly sinking
For nothing seems our own;
We sadly keep on going,
Be it days, or months, or years,
Then by God's grace we'll meet again
Beyond the veil of tears.

—Sadly missed and ever remembered by Rhonda, Mervyn, Wayne and Pamela.

HOBDEN — In memory of Clare, who passed away August 31, 1965.

Like fallen leaves, the years pass by,
But memories together, can never die.
—Sadly missed by Wife Fay.

KELLETT — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mildred Kellett, who passed away September 8, 1966.

Although we smile and make no fuss,
No one misses her more than us,
And when old times we oft recall
That's when we miss her most of all.

—Always remembered by Husband, Family and Grandchildren.

Haliburton School Of Fine Arts Summer Sessions Successful

Ceramics and an introductory art course for children were the most popular of nine subjects offered recently at the Haliburton School of Fine Arts, first annual summer sessions, which attracted a total of 120 students.

In all, 24 adults were involved in beginner and advanced ceramic programs, and 34 children, mostly from the Haliburton area, took advantage of the art program tailored for them.

Other subjects offered included creative writing, weaving, linocut and blockprinting, landscape painting, drawing and painting for beginners, watercolour, and experimental painting.

Sessions were conducted from the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School.

"We are reasonably pleased with the reception these programs received," said Jan Augustijn of Haliburton, Director of the Fine Arts School. "And judging from the comments of students and instructors, we think something was accomplished."

The school is an extension division of Sir Sandford Fleming College, but was originated by a group of Haliburton citizens, and still is managed on a voluntary basis by the original organization, now known as the Haliburton Guild of Fine Arts.

Overall aim of the School is to help both the beginner and the advanced student in arts and crafts. The first courses were given last fall.

Next month, landscape painting will be offered on the weekends of September 21 and 28, linocut and blockprinting will be given the weekend of September 21, and beginning September 28 a weekend photography program will be presented.

Autumn programs this year will be conducted from a lodge in the Haliburton area.

Ceramics was one of the more popular programs offered during the recent summer sessions of the Haliburton School of Fine Arts. Josh Beutel of Cornwall watches while Mrs. Margaret Valentine of Norland, surrounded by more modern forms of ceramics, forms a jar on the traditional pottery wheel under the direction of Toronto instructor Chizuko Shimano. Classes in landscape painting, linocut and blockprinting, and photography are planned for the fall.

Wild Nature, And Let Us All Live Together

Here we are into another vanishing summer, and it has been encouraging to see so many people coming into our lovely country, full of sights. Not only do they want to see the lakes, hills and also the surprising good roads that lead you to anything or anywhere you want to go, but the animal life if it is not too abundant.

We would like to see it, but there are many of their kind such as deer, bear, coon, skunk and many others that are very harmless. In fact, we have no such animals, nor any snakes, that will give anybody any fear. I have been asked many times regarding the dangers of these animals, and if it is possible to be bitten by snakes or by any chance of being torn limb by limb if one goes into the woods or comes in contact with any of them on our lakeshores.

To answer any of these questions, I think I am entitled to say, owing to my knowledge of my travels and experiences, I have yet to see any animal or anything take advantage of my approach.

Nowadays we are beginning to realize that all of these animals are like ourselves, more than we ever dreamed of. They want to live with us, and we with them. The time has come when we should see animals and not to try and shoot them like in the past, but to see them and trust them. It is not the nature of animals to attack, but to get away; it is only fear that will cause any of these supposed dangers from wild creatures, that make them hard to see.

So if you come in contact with any of them, take out your camera as they won't be afraid of that because the time is coming when we are going to have to live with them and get along with them.

Canada Post Office Cancels Post Office Savings Bank

The Post Office Savings Bank which was inaugurated 100 years ago "to encourage savings among people of low and medium incomes", will be phased out, Postmaster General, the Honourable Eric Kierans, announced today.

Starting September 3, no new accounts will be opened and no deposits accepted for established accounts. While all depositors will be requested to withdraw their money from the Savings Bank the closeout operation would be expedited if owners of inactive accounts would make application now to clear their remaining balances. The phase out is planned to span a sixteen-month period during which time Parliament will be asked to consider legislation which will close the book on this chapter of post office history by January 1, 1970.

In the past Royal Commissions have recommended the closing of the Savings Bank as an economic measure but the Government of the day always took a second look at the service aspect and gave the institution a reprieve.

There can be no further extension, said, the Postmaster General said, since the expanded services rendered by other financial institutions have made the operations of the Savings Bank economically unjustifiable. Interest rates higher than 2½% paid by other financial organizations, increased competition for savings and the improved transportation to larger centres have accelerated the decline in the Post Office Savings Bank deposits.

The Savings Bank was never a large operation and deposits today are less than half what they were 15 years ago when the system hit an all time high with deposits totalling $39.3 million. While there are 296,000 accounts, 206,000 of them have been inactive for over 10 years. Of the 90,000 active accounts, 73,000 have balances of less than $100.00.

Only 1,500 out of a possible 9,200 post offices are providing banking service today. In 1,240 of these communities chartered banking facilities are available and in most of the remaining 260 communities some form of banking and savings service is provided through credit societies or other institutions.

So They Say

All is bad on a cloudy day,
 It's going to rain, so they say;
 So you leave your task for another day,
 But you soon find that it didn't pay.

This world's getting worse, so they say,
 It's bound to hurt us all, this way;
 You shrug your shoulders and say, that's tough,
 But you really don't know what's rough.

You must experience, so they say,
 To know what it's like or what to say;
 The older, they say they understand,
 But still they offer, then make the demand.

There's too much pressure on them in the world today,
 Oh, they'll make out fine, so they say;
 But stop and look at our youth today,
 Haven't they gone mildly astray?

Gone is all that they've been taught,
 In a world of madness they've been caught;
 In an angry violent world, they've turned around,
 But they still search, for there's truth to be found.

It's just a passing phase, so they say,
 But take another look at youth today;
 It's a passing phase, you might say,
 But what happens if it goes on this way?

Uncle Dudley's Column

Last week we made a visit to the Museum which was recently opened in Haliburton Village.

Actually I was quite amazed at the extent of the exhibits. I take it that this work was nearly all volunteer labour, and an excellent job has been done. The site near the park area on the shore of Head Lake adds to the setting.

One of the many advantages is the room for more space. I would feel quite confident that in a few years extra space will be required and there is room for expansion. In any advertising of the County, the attraction of this place should have number one preference.

Those who have contributed, and the many whose untiring efforts have brought this about deserve our grateful thanks.

When I received my August 15 issue of the "Family Herald", the farm paper published in Montreal for a century, it carried the notice of the paper's publication to be terminated with their issue of September 26.

Among my earliest recollections is the picture of myself laying on the rug carpet, beside the pot-bellied stove, and reading the children's section of this fine newspaper.

For many years the publication arrived weekly, and the Thursday mail was eagerly awaited. Later it became a fortnightly publication and added colour to its illustrations making it a very bright and interesting journal.

I am certainly going to miss the bi-monthly appearance of this journal; the Editors Sam McGibbon, David Suderman, Anthony Locke and H. Gordon Green were my favourites. The demise of this fine publication will be a real loss to many readers, both old and young, not only in the diminishing farm areas but in many towns and city homes as well.

It seems too bad that inflation, due to ever rising costs, makes it necessary for these decisions by managers of many worthy industries. The memory of this journal will remain for many years in the minds of the Canadian people.

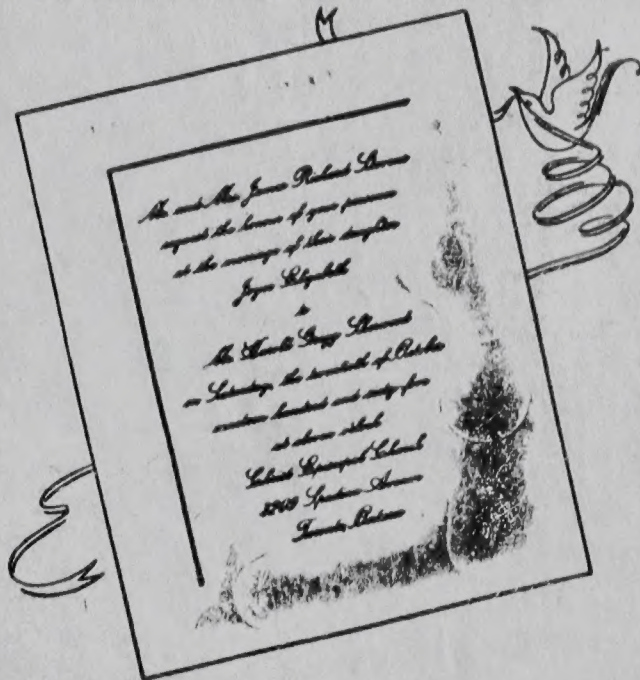

The Free Press of Winnipeg will fill out the subscription time that is due, but I doubt if the efforts of many of the Editors will be retained. I am just wondering who may be reading my copy of the Free Press in 1973.

Nila Reynolds To Speak At Rotary

Mrs. Nila Reynolds, author of the book "In Quest of Yesterday", the story of the Haliburton Highlands, will be the guest speaker at the Haliburton Rotary Club meeting tonight (Thursday).

Her book has proven to be so popular with the readers that the first edition is just about sold out, and we expect that it will soon be going into the second printing.

Everyone is looking forward to hearing her speak.

Derry Day At Madoc

The Annual Derry Day Commemoration was held at Madoc on Saturday, August 10, 1968.

The Black Knights of Ontario East and visitors, along with the members of Crystal Chapters, L.O.B.A., Orange Lodges and Orange Young Britains, assembled at the Fair Grounds.

The parade assembled at 1:30 p.m. and, led by several fine bands, marched through the Main Street of Madoc and back to the Fair Grounds.

George Gordon, W.P. for Hastings County, welcomed everyone to Madoc, and was followed by several prominent members of the Order who gave short addresses. Those speaking included Clarence Spooner, G.M., B.A., Rev. Jaster, G.M., Grand Orange Lodge, Harry Stinson, G.M., Grand Black Chapter, Sister Pearl Holmes, Grand Mistress of L.O.B.A., John Hammond, Orange Insurance, and Gordon W. Barr, D.G.M., Grand Black Chapter.

Thanks were given to the committee and members of Hastings County for arranging a very successful Derry Day.

The day was concluded with the singing of "God Save The Queen".
